

“Jesus Christ” is a thoroughly Jewish name and a Jewish title.

Jesus is Yeshua (יֵשׁוּעַ, yeshua) a first-century shortened version of the name Joshua or Yehoshua (יְהוֹשֻׁעַ).

That is Jesus’ actual name, a name by which he was known to his parents, friends, and to his followers.

It comes from the Hebrew verb “to save” (לְהוֹשִׁיעַ, lehoshiah).

The theme of the Book of Revelation is “of,” “from,” and “about” Jesus Christ.
