

Three Doors — Three Dimensions of Christ's Authority

Each door marks a threshold: opportunity, fellowship, and glory.

The Philadelphia Door

OPPORTUNITY · SERVICE · ACCESS

"Behold, I have set before thee an open door, and no man can shut it: for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name."

REVELATION 3:8

CHRIST GRANTS OPPORTUNITY.

He openeth, and no man shutteth; and shutteth, and no man openeth. (Rev 3:7-8)

This door represents Christ's exclusive power to grant and deny access and an opportunity for faithful service.

The Laodicean Door

FELLOWSHIP · INTIMACY · RESPONSE

"Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me."

REVELATION 3:20

CHRIST INVITES FELLOWSHIP.

The door is opened by obedience and faith.

This door presents an intimate, personal invitation. Christ stands outside, waiting for someone to open the door so He may enter and dine with them.

The Heavenly Door

REVELATION · GLORY · THE THRONE

"After this I looked, and, behold, a door was opened in heaven: and the first voice which I heard was as it were of a trumpet talking with me; which said, Come up hither, and I will shew thee things which must be hereafter."

REVELATION 4:1

CHRIST UNVEILS GLORY.

The opened door reveals the throne room and heavenly mysteries.

This door represents the special grace of looking into heaven—ordinarily closed to human sight—and signifies a particular divine revelation.

Three Doors. One Lord. Infinite Grace.
